

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1892.

NO. 94

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

—John T. Hays, a prominent young attorney of this place, will leave Wednesday for Indianapolis, Ind., on legal business, to be gone some two weeks.

—Considerable sickness is reported at Williamsburg and Saturday morning the death of Mr. G. D. Moore, a prominent lawyer of that place, was reported. Grippe seems to be the principal complaint.

—Messrs. W. D. Turner and G. W. Wilburn, of London, were in town Wednesday and Thursday on business. These gentlemen tell me they propose starting a jewelry store and repair shop in Manchester and have already taken steps in that line.

—The societies of Union College executed quite a nice programme Friday night, which was complete and well rendered. Some of the principal features was a paper, "The Student's Friend," edited and read by Miss Mollie Burnside, daughter of Dr. W. Burnside, of this place, and a recitation by Miss Mary Tinsley. The music was good and the instructor in this department, Miss Ella Tinsley, deserves much credit. She is possessed of much talent in this line and has quite a good class.

—Hon. S. B. Bishman, ex-mayor of Barbourville, has been mentioned as a delegate to the national convention at Chicago June 21. Mr. Disturnell is quite popular in Eastern Kentucky and will in all probability receive the endorsement of his party in this district. He was mentioned last spring by the democracy of this section as a candidate for attorney general and had a good following enlisted, but he declined to run. He was a candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention in 1890 and carried Knox county by a majority of 600 when she usually gives a republican majority of 600 to 800.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY

—Sunday was a lovely day.

—William D. Tanner, lately with our jeweler, zinc B. Oakley, will shortly establish himself in the same line of business at Manchester.

—Steve Jackson is grading the ground on which the new Baptist church was to have been built and will erect a handsome residence thereon.

—Revenue Agent C. M. Randolph and posse returned Saturday night from a raid in Harlan county, where they succeeded in cutting up one illicit distillery.

—The Cleric Debating Society was organized at the court house last week and will meet every Thursday night. Every one, young and old, male and female, can take part if they so desire.

—Old John Bell Gibson preached at the Christian church Sunday morning and night to an appreciative audience. Elder Ranney, of the Northern Methodist church, assisted by others, also had a good attendance.

—Marriage license were issued last week to H. C. Conken, aged 18, and Elizabeth Bowman, 16; W. R. Jones and Letitia George, T. M. Whitaker and Marin Barnett, daughter of County Judge M. M. Barnett.

—Clark & Sent, the stave men, have at least 20 car-loads of dressed staves on their yard near the depot. They will not make any shipments until all are thoroughly dried and seasoned, which will probably be late in the summer.

KELLEY.—Ralph Morrison, little son of J. F. and Maggie C. Kelley, was born March 9th, 1889 and died after a few days illness with laryngitis, Jan. 12th, 1892. A bright, sweet child has been taken away. For a brief while he was the light of the home, the joy of father and mother, the pet and favorite of all. But the light is gone out, the joy is turned to sorrow and pain and anguish fill the hearts of the stricken ones. The writer deeply sympathizes with the bereaved family. To bury our loved ones out of our sight is one of the sorest trials that can rack the human heart. Only faith in God, hope of meeting again and the gentle ministrations of the Holy Spirit, can bring comfort in this dark home. Let us not in all this "sin against God or charge God foolishly." The Judge of all the earth will do right. He will support us in our trial, comfort us in our affliction and in our greatest sorrow.

"He will be with us, our troubles to bless
And sanctify to us our deepest distress."

As for little Ralph he is safe. No sin more shall reach him than that have to which he has been borne. No earth stain shall ever soil the beautiful garments in which Christ has robed him. Jesus has called him unto himself that he might bless him. Though our arms are empty and our hearts heavy, let us not wish to call him back again. In the "home of the soul" we shall meet him and bye.

A.

The purchase of Alaska has already proved to be a pretty good speculation, goods being exported from that country last year to the value of over $1,000,000 in excess of the price paid to Russia for the territory.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Miss Belle Rife has returned home after a profitable term in the musical department of Lancaster College.

—One of our vendors of first-class leverages filled an order from Kansas this week with a jag of his hair-cutting 11-year-old brand.

—John Greening found the fresh meat business unsuited to his tastes and adaptabilities and persuaded Will Reid to resume business at the old stand.

—George Drye, of Kansas, gave his friends and relatives here a pleasant surprise by an unannounced visit last week. Misses Ali and Dolly Catibell spent a few weeks at Lebanon.

—Miss Lizzie Bogle returned to Danville to resume her school duties. Mrs. E. C. Walton is improving. Mr. George Rife and wife went to Lebanon. Miss Mattie Dunville returned from Texas yesterday.

—Dave Allen is nursing a pair of sore lungs. Emmett McCormick is profiting by example, observation and experience which constrain him to keep off icy roads and mean good tires, consequently there is nothing going on in stock trading circles.

—George Ryan, of Somers, is spending a few days with friends here after a long absence. George is one of Hustonville's adopted boys of whom she is justly proud and the brass band would always be out to welcome him if he didn't so modestly slip in unannounced.

—Walter Greening's sagacity in having the Western Union connect Hustonville with a loop is verified by the ladder business done here. Waller's commission compromise to place him among the financial notables in this town and his mercantile business has already become secondary.

—"That a prophet is not without honor except at home" is again flung at us with a knock-down force in the fact that our many wide awake, most prolific and especially original engineers of first-class home pages had never discovered in Henry Watterson some of the best democratic presidential timber in the United States, but had to receive a pointer from an eastern exchange.

—We thought that the K. K. membership was restricted to this side of the Ohio River, which separates the enlightened from the wicked, but it transpires that the elect of Ohio have unlawfully banded themselves together and strung up a poor nigger for only killing one woman and choking another almost to death. What will Mr. J. F. Watson, of Debra Dunn, India, think of us after reading that?

—The rapidity with which railroad horsecars are trending on each other's heels, in this, the greatest country on the globe, when the average speed of the fastest trains is a little less than 100 miles an hour, clamors for an early introduction of those 200 miles an hour locomotives, which will insure a more rapid and painless translation of the whole batch of passengers to Kingdom Come and abolish week-long trains and repair shops.

—Boyle is to be congratulated in the appointment of Mr. McDowell to the Commissionership of Agriculture and Gov. Brown on his wise discrimination in the selection of our neighbor, who will bring the office the experience of a highly refined and enlightened Christian gentleman, whose success as a farmer has enabled him in his vigorous middle age to turn the farm over to the boys and enjoy that otium emm dignitatem which an irreproachable career so eminently merits.

—The past several months' accumulation of invalid footgear pleads for the reopening of a hospital here, under management of a doctor skilled in administration of waxed ends and pegs. There is enough coldblod crying for immediate attention to keep a brisk workman's time between drinks fully occupied the remainder of the year and never an excuse for knocking off on National holidays except from overwork. By promptly acting on the above some adventurer will soon find himself wondering how it is he had not sooner heard of Hustonville and will cheerfully pay the printer for this ad, which put him on to the best thing of his life.

—Professor Tassanini has banned good smoking tobacco by publication of his discovery, by experiment, that tobacco smoke is a valuable gericide, being absolutely destructive of the cholera and typhus fever bacilli and materially retards the growth of other varieties. Another professor professes to have perfected Koch's lymph and sine his elimination of the defects has an article which is warranted to cure consumption. We are assured that it is not necessary to go further than Louisville to find as satisfactory care of the liquor appetite as Dr. Keeley advertises and when some philanthropist goes to the front with a specific for the gum chewing weeds little incentive to experimental research will remain to the medical profession. This is an age of discoveries if the fellows whom Sherman bought haven't been tried.

—Tone Hunn sold a Boyle county

trader a handsome young combined stallion for a good price and has added a herd of Texas ponies to his stock of flyers. The Texans when out for an airing attract much attention, but the most interested admirers keep one eye out for possible emergencies as they are rather erratic of motion, often betraying an obstinate preference for a zigzag route, reckless of obstacles, animate or inanimate.

—We are sorry that we can't report Uncle George Weatherford materially improved. Mrs. Leah Woodsy, one of the oldest citizens of Frye's Creek, is lying in a critical condition and her recovery is very improbable, pneumonia having followed her attack of grippe. She has been a woman of wonderful industry and vitality, for many years past rarely escaping an annual attack of bronchitis or pneumonia, and is 81 years old. John Alcott, a handsome young gentleman from the Big Fork, passed through Hustonville Saturday on a business trip to Cincinnati and Covington.

—The Grand Buckeye Political Hippodrome has its tents spread at Columbus and is giving entertainments daily, which are unequalled by those of any other combination on earth. Patrons are guaranteed an enjoyable sitting or money refunded. Ohio is a State something larger than Rhode Island and famed for enterprise, wool, tin plate and tarts. The suffrage of that State appears to be largely of the commercial variety and we want to know why it isn't properly catalogued in the McKinley bill with a high rate—for future campaign purposes self-explained. With such high merit organs as the Enquirer and Commercial Gazette, better was expected of Ohio.

—Dave Allen is nursing a pair of sore lungs. Emmett McCormick is profiting by example, observation and experience which constrain him to keep off icy roads and mean good tires, consequently there is nothing going on in stock trading circles.

—Walter Greening's sagacity in having the Western Union connect Hustonville with a loop is verified by the ladder business done here. Waller's commission compromise to place him among the financial notables in this town and his mercantile business has already become secondary.

—"That a prophet is not without honor except at home" is again flung at us with a knock-down force in the fact that our many wide awake, most prolific and especially original engineers of first-class home pages had never discovered in Henry Watterson some of the best democratic presidential timber in the United States, but had to receive a pointer from an eastern exchange.

—We thought that the K. K. membership was restricted to this side of the Ohio River, which separates the enlightened from the wicked, but it transpires that the elect of Ohio have unlawfully banded themselves together and strung up a poor nigger for only killing one woman and choking another almost to death. What will Mr. J. F. Watson, of Debra Dunn, India, think of us after reading that?

—The rapidity with which railroad horsecars are trending on each other's heels, in this, the greatest country on the globe, when the average speed of the fastest trains is a little less than 100 miles an hour, clamors for an early introduction of those 200 miles an hour locomotives, which will insure a more rapid and painless translation of the whole batch of passengers to Kingdom Come and abolish week-long trains and repair shops.

—Boyle is to be congratulated in the appointment of Mr. McDowell to the Commissionership of Agriculture and Gov. Brown on his wise discrimination in the selection of our neighbor, who will bring the office the experience of a highly refined and enlightened Christian gentleman, whose success as a farmer has enabled him in his vigorous middle age to turn the farm over to the boys and enjoy that otium emm dignitatem which an irreproachable career so eminently merits.

—The past several months' accumulation of invalid footgear pleads for the reopening of a hospital here, under management of a doctor skilled in administration of waxed ends and pegs. There is enough coldblod crying for immediate attention to keep a brisk workman's time between drinks fully occupied the remainder of the year and never an excuse for knocking off on National holidays except from overwork. By promptly acting on the above some adventurer will soon find himself wondering how it is he had not sooner heard of Hustonville and will cheerfully pay the printer for this ad, which put him on to the best thing of his life.

—Professor Tassanini has banned good smoking tobacco by publication of his discovery, by experiment, that tobacco smoke is a valuable gericide, being absolutely destructive of the cholera and typhus fever bacilli and materially retards the growth of other varieties. Another professor professes to have perfected Koch's lymph and sine his elimination of the defects has an article which is warranted to cure consumption. We are assured that it is not necessary to go further than Louisville to find as satisfactory care of the liquor appetite as Dr. Keeley advertises and when some philanthropist goes to the front with a specific for the gum chewing weeds little incentive to experimental research will remain to the medical profession. This is an age of discoveries if the fellows whom Sherman bought haven't been tried.

—Tone Hunn sold a Boyle county

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mr. D. G. Slaughter announces that he will open his new store Jan. 30.

—Ottenheim is on a boom. Immigrants are arriving almost daily. Mr. J. Ottenheimer knows how to hustle a colony.

—Notices are up announcing the sale of part of the S. A. Middleton farm, to satisfy a mortgage held by W. T. Grant, manager of C. O. Springs.

—Our new board of town trustees have taken charge and passed up very strict rules. Now if they will only enforce them we will have a very civil town in spite of the suds men. Mr. G. W. DeBorde is chairman.

—Every ice-house is full; even the two large houses Mr. Wm. Stuart had built four years ago, but until this season they have never had a lump of ice in them. Frozen desserts will be the fashion next summer, we predict.

—Tie-loading is in progress at this place, but they are frozen together so tightly that they have to be cut apart with axes, and lumber that has to be loaded on that cars cannot be loaded at all, on account of the danger from the ice.

—Mrs. D. B. Edmundson has again had to return to Louisville for treatment. She is under that skilled surgeon, Dr. L. S. McMurry, and we hope will soon be able to return home fully restored. She has our deepest sympathy in her sad affliction.

—Mr. S. P. Moore had a little son, aged three years, to die with something like a spasm. Death is always sad, and especially so when so sudden. Mr. Grand Allen died and was buried with Masonic honors at Old Paint Lick Friday. He was quite an old citizen.

—We knew of one young man in town who goes to see his sweetheart every night and writes her every day, but still clings being in love. Men are such brutes, never willing to own bluid, hence some busybody in such affairs, who seems to have no respect for the dead at all when a few dollars are concerned.

—Mr. E. H. Bryant and mother, of Campbellsville, are here trying to settle the estate of Mrs. Mary Garnett, deceased. One of the relatives, who is not personally connected with the estate, is trying to cause trouble. There is always some busybody in such affairs, who seems to have no respect for the dead at all when a few dollars are concerned.

—Mrs. J. R. Bailey, Mrs. J. H. Stephens and Dr. W. S. Beazley are slowly recovering from very severe attacks of the grippe. Little Gracie Tudor, who was so seriously injured from falling on the ice, is able to be out again. Mr. Alex Beazley made a flying trip to Corbin to prepare for a new drug store, which Mr. Will Beazley and Will Petts left Monday to open at that place. May success attend them. Mr. Morris Harris and Felix Myers left for St. Louis this week. Parties who went to see Blind Tom from this place were all highly entertained, not only with the music, but also by their kind treatment at the Coffey Hotel, which is daily adding to its popularity as a first-class hotel.

—There was a kind of temperance meeting at the Baptist church, the 17th, in which speeches were made by Prof. Huff, Allen and Brown, Rev. J. N. Bowling, Dr. Taylor and others. Several persons who attended were sufficiently impressed to sign a pledge themselves to taste not, handle not in the future and a few of the more enthusiastic, it is said, will hereafter refuse to support any candidate for office who is not a true live prohibitionist.

—To those at a distance, who are writing anxious letters about getting a copy of the History of the First Kentucky Cavalry, we would say be patient; it will be a long time before the work is out; there are many difficulties to encounter in getting up authentic matter, but the work is going on all the same and will continue to do so until the end, unless providential hindrance intercede.

—To those at a distance, who are writing anxious letters about getting a copy of the History of the First Kentucky Cavalry, we would say be patient; it will be a long time before the work is out; there are many difficulties to encounter in getting up authentic matter, but the work is going on all the same and will continue to do so until the end, unless providential hindrance intercede.

—Drugs and Paints, Oils, & Stationery.

R. R. GENTRY.

January 23, 1892.

—W. H. Gadbury has been appointed postmaster at Fairview, Boyle county.

—The Welsh storeroom corner 3d and Main, Danville, sold to G. E. Wiseman for $1,110.

—In the Florida Senatorial contest the Senate Committee on Elections has decided to report in favor of Senator Call retaining his seat.

—The space devoted to the Chicago World's fair is 600 acres. Philadelphia had 236 and Paris 143. The buildings will cover 140 acres and the cost of equipment will be $14,000,000.

—The Senate Committee on Women Suffrage has decided to report favorably the proposed measure for a constitutional amendment giving the right of suffrage to women.

—The fog owing to its peculiar construction can't breathe with the mouth open and would die from suffocation if it were kept open forcibly.

—The famine in Russia involves 40,000,000 human beings—nearly two-thirds of the population of the United States.

A. C. SINE

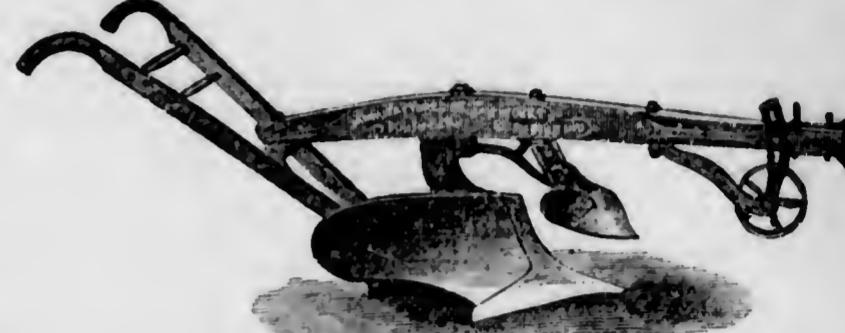

J. N. MENEFEE
SINE & MENEFEE,
DEALERS IN
SASH, DOORS AND BLINDS,

Rough and Dressed Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Mouldings, Brackets and Verandah Work.

WOVEN WIRE AND SLAT FENCE.
The best selected stock and lowest prices in Central Kentucky.

Office and Yard Depot Street, - - - Stanford, Ky.

The Oliver Chilled Plow

Has many imitators, but no equal. Don't be deceived by something said to be as good. Buy the Oliver and you will have the best. I am the only agent here and extras bought elsewhere are bogus and will not give satisfaction. Prices reduced on both Plows and Repairs.

J. B. FOSTER.

→ SEVERANCE & SON, ←

DEALER IN

Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Carpets, &c.

Extend to the public their hearty thanks for the very liberal patronage for the past year and

Promise our Best Efforts

Shall be exerted to maintain your confidence. Our motto has been and shall be

The Best Goods for the Least Money.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JANUARY 26, 1892

W. P. WALTON.

BELIEVING in luck and considering capacity for the entertainment of such a crowd of boys in the trenches as will assemble at the next convention to nominate a democratic president, the national committee chose Chicago as the place and June 21 as the day for the next assembling of the untrifurled hosts from the Lakes to the Gulf, and from Cape Cod to Kalamazoo. Satisfied with her honors of the World's Fair, Chicago was not even a bidder for this honor, but she got there with votes to spare on the 15th ballot, though only one lone delegate voted for her on the first. Next to New York, Chicago is better able than any city in the Union to take care of a crowd and the fact that Cleveland was elected after being nominated there gave the committeemen a leaning and a yearning towards her. It is a notable fact that every nominee for the presidency made at Chicago since the war has been elected, save Blaine and Logan, and "by the eternal" the one that will be nominated this year shall prove no exception to the general rule. We hope and believe that man will be Grover Cleveland, the synonym of all that is honest in party and faithful in government.

COL. POLK JOHNSON throws out this valuable hint to the legislators and others assembled at Frankfort. It is good advice for the capital and everywhere else: "None knows better than one who has lived in Frankfort the difficulty of setting the feet of an official who indulges in a social glass. It is demoralizing to him mentally, morally and financially. Finally, we conclude that the young man is safest and happiest who avoids political preferment altogether, even though he work out his destiny in humble station throughout all his days." Yes, drinking and treating usually go hand in hand with office-seeking and office-holding and the first thing a man knows he is in the maelstrom, a mental and physical wreck. Young men and old men, beware of looking on the wine while it is red, for "at last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

The Columbia Spectator agrees with us about the inequality of the salaries of judges and Commonwealth's attorneys, and adds: "To reduce the salaries of circuit judges and allow that of Commonwealth's attorneys to remain at $2,500 would be a case of saving at the spigot and wasting at the lung." Since writing the article on the subject our attention has been called to the provision of the new constitution as to the office of Commonwealth's attorney, which fortunately limits their pay from the State treasury to not exceeding $500 per annum. In addition the attorneys are to receive a per cent. of the fines and forfeitures and the counties may give them additional compensation if they want to, which they will not.

M. H. E. WOOLFORD, who attended the World's Fair Conference at Louisville, gives this good report of the delegates: "At the banquet wine was dispensed with liberality, but was not accepted with the freedom one would expect from an assembly composed of visitors from the country, foot loose and presumably ripe for a frolic or a good time. The writer saw nine delegates at one table, seated in a row directly opposite him, proclaim their belief in total abstineness by turning down their glasses and at other tables a great many pursued the same course."

JOE BRAUDLEY, the justice of the Supreme Court of the U. S., whose vote in the electoral commission accomplished the steal of the presidency from Samuel J. Tilden, who was elected, and gave it to Rutherford B. Hayes, who was not has gone to give an account for that and others sins done in the body. If forgive me for the great wrong on the American people is as slow in the next world as it was in this, Alende Joe will roost for a few centuries at least in the hottest part of a red-hot hell.

The Louisville Times changes its present preferences with the wind. First it was for Cleveland, then it consented to the nomination of Patterson, after swearing that it would never consent and now it comes out flat-footed for Carlisle. If a man were to change his drinks as often as the Times does its favorite in the presidential derby, he'd get so blind drunk by night he couldn't tell the east end from the west of a horse proceeding towards the accident.

The last time we saw Managing Editor W. P. Campbell, of the Covington Post, was at the Owensboro Press Association. He was a rosy-cheeked boy then, minus a mustache and with little thought of a wife. Now we observe that he is enjoying the honors of a first born, which he has named Atwood McRae. May the boy live long and grow in grace as rapidly as his father has in the newspaper business.

SENATOR QUAY has gotten another verdict for libel, this time against the Pittsburgh Post, but the alleged vindication is only apparent. In both cases the judges have been his henchmen and the juries most outrageously stacked.

BRR. HENDRICK is a hair splitter from the village of that name. He continues to knock great holes in the new constitution against the strict construction of which he has never failed to decide. The sergeant-at-arms, door-keeper and other officers of the General Assembly wanted to use the free passes they have, so they asked the attorney general for an opinion on the subject. He very readily comes to the front, saying that those people are not officers in the meaning of the constitution, but common every-day employes of the Legislature. At the rate he is going it won't be long before Mr. Hendrick will give it as his opinion that the Interior Journal and others were right when they said before its adoption that the whole new constitution was a fraud and a failure. The difference between him and us seems to be that he was for the thing before its adoption and against it now; we were against it before and for now because 158,000 majority, even if a big part of it was negroes, had said in their wisdom that it is the only good and true fundamental law that was ever given to a thankful people.

MR. MUIR's withdrawal from the chairmanship of the committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, and his evident intention of acting irrespective of the Speaker, shows that he regards himself of too much importance to be led even by the majority. The Texan seems to have nursed the idea till he actually believes he is the democratic party. We were for him for Speaker simply because he more fully represented the idea of tariff reform than any of the other candidates, but it must be confessed that his skulking and ponting are evidences of a man of smaller calibre than he was supposed to be and there will be less reason to regret his failure of election than if he had stood up like a man and showed no sign of chagrin over his defeat.

THE CHILIAN AFFAIR has assumed a gory aspect. President Harrison has issued an ultimatum, demanding apology and reparation which was expected to be answered yesterday. If it be not complied with, Minister Egan is instructed to sever diplomatic relations with the Chilian government. The Courier-Journal says: A Santiago cable says excitement is increasing and the British Minister to Chili has received instructions from his government to offer his services as a mediator. A cabinet meeting was held at Washington Sunday. The steamer San Benito has been chartered to San Francisco by the United States and is being loaded with coal and the Philadelphia is said to be on her way to head off the new Chilian war vessel, Capt. Pratt.

The report that a Texas post-master was flying the Confederate flag threw the goody-goody post-master-general into convulsions and he ordered an army of inspectors, detectives and what-nots to fly at once to the scene and see if the terrible charge was true. They went in solid phalanx against the offending post master and found that the "old dirty rag of treason," as the head of the G. A. R. beautifully expressed it, was flying more or less than a display of blunting arranged without knowledge of flags by the ladies, in honor of a local fair. Peace was therupon declared and Bre'r Wannamaker is able again to sleep o' nights.

THEIR never was any good reason for auditor's agents and other back tax collectors with large fees and special privileges, and we are glad to see that the revisory commission has recommended a change of the law authorizing their appointment and requiring the work from the regular collection officers charged with the collection of all the taxes. As practiced, the appointment of auditor's agents has only been to give the auditor still greater leverage for his re-election, while absolutely being a tax on the State.

Their official call for the democratic convention at Chiago invites all democratic and conservative citizens of the United States, irrespective of past political associations and differences, who can unite with us in the effort for pure, economical and constitutional government, to join in sending delegates to the convention. Each State will be entitled to a representation double that he must be entitled to.

Two women were legally executed Friday, one in Virginia and the other in North Carolina. Their crimes were heinous and merited the terrible punishment they suffered, but it is more than probable that if their skins had not been black they would not have been hung.

INDIANA republicans seem to be pretty solid for Harrison. The 13th district conventions held a few days ago to select a State committee, each passed resolutions endorsing his administration, while nine declared straight out that he must be re-nominated.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Senate again disregarded the new constitution and furnished itself with another messenger.

The resolution that the constitution-al-inhibition of railroad passes for legislators did not apply to this legislature was tabled by a vote of 65 to 5. Every body wanted to go on record.

A bill passed the House, 65 to 3, which provides that no action shall lie for the possession or recovery of any lands in this Commonwealth until the person or persons instituting said action shall have paid taxes on the land for 20 years.

NEWSY NOTES.

The K., C. G. & I. has taken charge of the Middleboro Belt railroad.

Dennis McCarthy, the Louisville wife murderer, was sentenced to death.

Fifty worshipers were killed or injured Sunday by the roof of a church at Slobodkoi, Russia falling in.

Burglars secured $140 in money and $74 in stamps, &c., by blowing open the safe of the Eminence post-office.

At Kansas City, 300 miles and 16 horses were burned in a fire at Sparks Bros' mule market. Loss about $10,000.

Senator Gibson, appointed by Gov. Jackson, of Maryland, was almost unanimously elected Senator by the Legislature of that State.

A fire in the business portion of Pine Bluff, Ark., caused a loss of $250,000. The water supply was poor and the fire had its own way.

The grip has spread with such rapidity in Paris that all the hospitals are crowded with patients. Barracks in the outskirts of the city are to be turned into infirmaries.

The Milledgeburg hoodlums, who throw eggs at Parson Reeves, have been indicted by the Bourbon circuit court and it is hoped that they will suffer the severest penalty.

Representative Mills has resigned the chairmanship of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Committee, declaring that he can serve the party better on the floor of the House.

New York suffered a $500,000 fire. Rheims, the French millinery importer, and several other firms were wiped out and Tiffany, the greatest of jewelers, was only saved by the skin of his teeth.

The National Surgical Institute at Indianapolis burned and 300 helpless inmates had a narrow escape. Cripples had to leap from third story windows and twenty of the more helpless are said to have lost their lives.

The strike of the switchmen in the L. St. L. and Texas, in the Louisville yards, was a fizzle. They demanded the discharge of the yard master, but after staying out a few days they asked to be reinstated and all were but two.

The Boone Paper Co., successors to Moore & Stark, Louisville, which was recently burned out, has decided not to resume a business, which has proved so unprofitable. The creditors will be paid in full, but the stockholders will get less than 5¢ on the dollar.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Rev. W. G. McCready, of the Epis- opal church, and Miss Margaret, daughter of Judge French, of Winchester, will be married Feb. 9th by Bishop Dunley.

Miss Bertie Hicks, the bright and accomplished daughter of Judge Sir. Hicks, of Somerset, will be married Feb. 1st to Dr. Henry Fitzpatrick, formerly of Somerset, but now a prominent physician in California.

An unusual suit is being tried in Somerset before Judge Morrow. John C. Pritchard, a railroad engineer, wanted Miss Ella Harrison to return the diamond rings and other valuables that he gave her when she promised to be his wife. Recently Miss Ella has given him the cold shoulder to such a degree as to freeze him out entirely. He asked the return of his presents, but "she said him nay," and the suit resulted. The world will have its opinion of a woman who would keep such gifts and of the man who would go to such an extremity to get them.

Franklin county, Va., furnishes an exception to the rule that love laughs at locksmiths. The old folks objected to the girl's marriage and instead of flying to some Greta Green, she tied a rope around her lily white neck and with the other around a limb of a tree, "launched herself into eternity." On hearing this awful news the man took a can of cold poison and his too went hence. Poor fool! But perhaps it is better thus. They were too tender and senseless for the battles of this cruel world.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Agnes Goff, daughter of Anderson Cheaunt, who had been a wife but a year, and Napoleon B. Terrill, aged 80, died of the grip in Madison county. Mr. Terrill leaves an estate of $100,000.

Mrs. Elmira Goodloe, the last of the five children of the late Gov. Owlesley, died at Richmond, Saturday. She was born near Lancaster in 1808 and married Judge Wm. C. Goodloe, of Fayette, in 1826. Among her seven surviving children are Mrs. R. H. Johnson and Mrs. John J. Craig, of Danville, and Rev. W. O. Goodloe, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Huddersfield.

Hynes.—Mr. Zachariah Hughes, one of the oldest men in the county having long passed fourscore and ten, died Sunday night of a general giving away of the vital forces. A member of the Christian church from boyhood, he had filled the office of elder for 50 years, or more, and was in every sense an excellent gentleman and a true Christian, in addition to being one of the best of democrats. For several years he has read the Bible almost constantly and nearly knew the sacred word by heart. He raised a large family of children, eight of whom are living, and honorable exemplars of their early teachings. The remains will be interred at McCormack the church he loved so well, at 10 o'clock this morning, after a service by Eld. W. L. Williams.

The Record's "old reliable," Capt. F.

J. White, celebrates his 72d birthday, tomorrow (Saturday). There never was but one man in the United States that could "set 'em up" faster than he, and like the man who hit Billy Patterson, he always "took beer." A fair estimate of the work he has done in his long and useful career as a typewriter places the number of letters he has handled at 72,000,000—one million each year, except when Cleveland was elected, when he most likely "set up" "about $5."—Central Record.

LANCASTER.—About 50 cattle on the market yesterday, but only about half sold. Those disposed of were mountain cattle and brought from 1 to 2½c. Plow horses sold at $10. to $30.; work mules $125 and mule colts $60 to $80. Business rather dull.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JANUARY 26, 1892

S. O. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

ENGRAVING beautifully and artistically done at A. R. Penny's.

Your account is now ready. Please call and settle. A. R. Penny.

Have your watch, clock and jewelry repaired at A. R. Penny's. All work warranted.

REMEMBER that all silverware, watches, rings, &c., bought at A. R. Penny's will be engraved free of charge.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. R. G. Hail returned to Somerset yesterday.

Mr. E. H. CATCHING, of London, was here yesterday.

J. B. COOK, of Hustonville, visited friends here yesterday.

Mrs. W. E. ARNOLD went to Danville yesterday to visit friends.

Mr. J. SALINGER, of Paris, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max Maes.

Mr. J. E. CARSON, of Crab Orchard, was the guest of Mr. J. B. Owstey.

Mrs. DR. HIGGINS, who has been ill for some time, is slowly improving.

Mrs. C. F. BRADLEY, of Louisville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Welsh.

MISS DOLLIE McROBERTS went over to Lexington yesterday to enter Hamilton College.

MISS JULIA STANG, one of Hustonville's pretty girls, has been the guest of Mrs. T. J. Foster.

MISS JENNIE McKinney, of the West End, is visiting Misses Annie McKinney and Annie Dunn.

Mrs. ANNIE HERZ, of the Barboursville, has left the College, owing to the illness of her mother.

Mrs. GEORGE ARMSTRONG and Miss Helen Taylor, of McKinney, were the guests of Mrs. S. M. Owens.

MR. AND MRS. J. E. HILL have moved from Peabody, Ky., to 2022 Prospect Avenue, Kansas City.

Mrs. S. P. STAGG has been quite sick and for five days has been greatly missed from the union revival choir.

Mr. W. P. Givens was here yesterday, after a long sojourn. His mother and sister, Miss Pauline, are also both better.

W. G. McKINNEY, of Decatur, Ala., is on a visit to his parents and friends, looking as happy as a big sunflower.

Mrs. LEONIE KINNEAR, of Somerset, mourns the death of a brother, who was killed in a mill accident in Alabama.

A. T. NUNNELLA left Sunday for Atlanta, where he goes to dispose of a couple of houses and miles he has had to some due.

Mrs. MOLLIE WIRAY went to Louisville several days ago to see her little grand-daughter, Nettie Wray Lynn, who has the scrofulous fever.

Mrs. W. E. THAYER has returned from Campbellsville, where she went to attend the burial of her little brother, a son of John Shipp.

MR. ORVILLE MARSHALL, who has been away for a number of years, is back, looking like the world has used him gently. His wife accompanies him.

MR. AND MRS. REUBEN FISHER and their excellent family have gone to Madison to live, much to the regret of their friends. Misses Sadie and Florence will be much missed by their young associates.

LITTLE MISS JENNIE DICKINSON, of Pineville, left her home yesterday, from whence her parents will remove in a short time. Every teacher and boarder were up to see her off, so great a little favorite was she.

MR. JOHN G. SMITH, who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, was sinking very rapidly at last accounts, yesterday afternoon. His brother, Weed Smith, is also very low with pneumonia and both are expected to die in a few hours.

MR. AND MRS. MATTHEW J. VAUGHN and daughter, Miss Josephine, Mrs. Josephine Evans, Mrs. H. C. Bright and family and Mrs. Eugene Whitley contemplate leaving for Orlando, Fla., Wednesday, to remain until spring. Advocate.

HON. E. C. WARREN was in Somerset last week and of counsel for the girl who wouldn't give up the presents. He says the proof was that there was no engagement and that the gifts were birthday and Christmas ones. Mr. Warren returned yesterday.

DR. F. R. FELAND, of Lawrenceburg, has just moved into his new suburban residence, which the News describes as the handsomest as well as the most conveniently arranged framed dwelling in the county. The judge is a son of A. M. Feland and his wife was Miss Ella King, and both are natives of Lincoln.

MISS MINNIE VANARSDALE, one of Harrodsburg's handsomest, returned home Saturday. She tells us she will return soon and with several of the ladies here, will get up a "Deesert School Party" and give a performance. It was recently given in her town and proved both a dramatic and financial success.

CITY AND VICINITY.

NICE line of Cigars and Tobaccos at McKinnon Bros.

New line of stiff and soft hats just received at McRoberts & Higgins.

SAVE your hogs by using Dr. Hanes' remedy. For sale by J. B. Foster.

Bio stock of Oliver plows and extras at J. B. Foster's.

We have a few blankets and comforts which we are closing out at $1. J. S. Hughes.

ARBUCKLES coffee at 20 cents per pound at B. F. Jones, Sr.'s Cash Bargain Store.

A NEW lot of overalls and shirts just received at the New Cash Store. J. S. Hughes.

CANNED Goods at greatly reduced prices for the next 30 days. B. K. & W. H. Wearen.

TAKE your eggs to the Cash Bargain store and get 20 cents per dozen. B. F. Jones, Sr.

FINEST assortment of Hamburg and linen edgings ever brought to Stanford at Seaverne & Son's.

Do not buy a new dress until you look over our stock. We have the latest things out. J. S. Hughes.

WM. LANDGRAFF, of Ottenheim, has been appointed a notary public and is ready for the transaction of all business in his line.

THE Somerset Reporter says that Col. W. P. Penn, T. P. A. of the Ellen N. sold $700 worth of tickets to two families moving from Pulaski to Montana.

BORN to the wife of Mr. S. L. Withers a 11-month boy. He has been christened Walker McKinney, in honor of the prominent young groceryman of this place.

DAN MILLER has resigned the office of constable and this magisterial district is without one. Judge Varner asks us to state that if there is a good democratic bierenbauer who wants the office to call and make his wishes known.

THE court of levy of Boyle has fixed the property tax at 17½ cent and the poll tax at $1.50. This is an increase of 2½ cents per $100 on property and 50 cent decrease on the poll, the constitution providing that this tax shall not exceed $1.50.

THE capital stock of the Pittman Coal Company was increased to $100,000 to pay for large additional purchases of Laurel county and other lands. Following are the officers elected for the year.

PRESIDENT, W. A. Price, vice president, Thos. McRoberts, secretary, J. M. Ballou, treasurer and general manager, S. V. Rowland.

MACK FENNER says that our charge that whisky played a big part in his trouble with Bob Whitley does him an injustice. He claims that he had not tasted liquor and that he did not harm the negro till he had applied a vile epithet to him. Whitley was unable to appear Friday and the trial was continued till day at 10 o'clock.

A RAIL.—Mrs. America Bailey, of Hustonville, who has reached the advanced age of nearly 90, has in her possession a count-pane nearly 150 years old. It is still in a good state of preservation and has been used nearly every year since it was made. The count-pane shows excellent workmanship and is very highly prized by the owner.

THE MODEL MINSTRELS. It will be hardly necessary to tell the town people that whisky played a big part in his trouble with Bob Whitley does him an injustice. He claims that he had not tasted liquor and that he did not harm the negro till he had applied a vile epithet to him. Whitley was unable to appear Friday and the trial was continued till day at 10 o'clock.

As will be seen in another column, R. Gentry, for reasons which he states, has withdrawn from the race for sheriff. During his candidacy he made hosts of friends, who will regret his determination and hold themselves ready to honor the excellent young democrat at any time he may call on them. This leaves only one candidate, J. N. Menefee, for the office and one foreseen clerk, J. I. Bailey. The committee will therefore doubtless give fair warning to all who may desire to become candidates and should no others enter the field, recall the order for a primary election and declare Messrs. Menefee and Bailey the democratic candidates for the respective offices.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

THE Advocate says that the Boyle County court has instructed County Attorney Robert Hardin to procure an act to enable the county to sell its present poor-house farm and issue bonds for the purchase of one that will be a least self-sustaining, if not of actual profit to the county. The present affair is a disgrace to the county and the Advocate calls loudly for a reformation. This reminds us that while it is kept in a decent and commendable manner, by a most excellent and estimable lady, Lincoln's poor-house, as situated, proves a great tax upon the people of the county. It is away off in one end of the county, the land is poor and it costs nearly $2,000 a year, whereas if it was better located and had a fertile farm attached, it could be made to at least save the heavy tax. A committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of selling the old and buying a new farm and it is hoped that its report will be in favor of it, and that the court of levy, which meets in March, will adopt it. We already have an ability to do what is considered best in the premises.

Don't forget we have received our new spring stock of white goods, laces, kid gloves, &c. J. S. Hughes.

LEAVE your accounts, notes, etc., in the hands of George B. Wearen at J. B. Paxton's office for collection.

J. S. HUGHES has just opened a lot of fancy dress goods which he will sell at prices that can not be duplicated elsewhere.

FOR RENT.—House with five rooms and garden. Situated on Logan Creek, 14 miles from Rowland. Apply to A. T. Nunnelley or T. L. Shelton.

CHARLES FORD, a brakeman, fell from his train while coming down Crooked Hill, on Friday morning, and sustained severe injuries about the head and back.

EIGHT shares of stock in the Farmers Bank and Trust Co., of Stanford, sold at Mr. Arch Anderson's sale 5 to J. M. Hail at $120.25 and three to Silas Anderson at $120.75.

ALEX GODDARD was tried before Judge Vernon yesterday for using abusive language to Wm. Huston, who shot at him for it, and was acquitted. Huston waived examination and was held to the circuit court in $50 bail, which he gave. They live near Turnersville.

NEAR Danville Sunday morning a Cincinnati Southern train was run into by a freight. Two sleepers, the freight engine and several freight cars were wrecked and three trainmen were injured, one, John McCabe, of Somerset, perhaps fatally. No passengers were hurt.

THE total increase of taxable property by the supervisors, we learn from John Bright, clerk, was $51,621, divided as follows: Stanford precincts, $28,000; Walnut Flat $5,291; Crab Orchard, $6,720; Waynesburg $400; Hustonville, $8,311; Turnersville $2,315 and Highland nothing. The supervisors were in session nine days at an expense of $10 a day, so it will be seen that they paid for themselves 5 times over.

IN a collision at Somerset, Thursday, Mr. Robert S. Lytle, of this place, was pretty badly used up. His train was pulling out of a switch to the north, when another train, also bound north, and going at about 20 miles an hour, struck it, turning cars over to the right and left. Mr. Lytle jumped with many other passengers when he saw the danger and had his knee hurt, his toe sprained, both hands badly torn, besides being otherwise bruised. He was brought home and is now able to hobble about on crutches.

SOMETHING GRAND COMING TO STANFORD.—The managers of Walton's Opera House have secured under special contract the famous Sweeney, Alvydo, Gorman & Goetz Model Minstrels to give one performance on next Monday night, Feb. 1. This company comprises 30 star artists, no more or less, and having a few dates to fill in before playing Harris' Theatre, Louisville, enables them to offer to the people of Stanford, the foremost and most refined minstrel show now traveling. They have a full orchestra of nine

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Published Every Tuesday and Friday

—AT—

25 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE

When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning at 5:00 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North..... 11:20 p.m.
" " South..... 1:30 p.m.
Express train " South..... 1:30 p.m.
" " North..... 1:35 a.m.
Local Freight " North..... 1:30 p.m.
" " South..... 1:30 p.m.

The latter trains also carry passengers.

The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 20 minutes faster.

That Your Hair

may retain its youthful color,
fullness, and beauty,
dress it daily
with

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It cleanses the scalp, cures humors, and stimulates a new growth
of hair

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.
Lowell, Mass.

J. N. MENEFEE,

Is a candidate for re-election as Sheriff. Subject in the action of the democracy. Election Nov. 1892.

JAMES P. BAILEY

Is a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

A. S. PRICE,

SURGEON DENTIST.
Office on Main street, over W. H. McRoberts,
Drug Store, Stanford.

DR. W. B. PENNY, Dentist.

Office Southside Main street, in office recently vacated by Dr. L. F. Hinman, Stanford, Ky.

DR. JOHN M. CRAIG, Homeopathic Physician.

STANFORD, KY.—KENTUCKY.
Office Hours:—to 12 a. m. to 3 p. m.; 8 to 9 p. m. Office on Lancaster street, opposite court-house.

R. C. MORGAN, D. D. S.

DENTIST.

Is meeting in the Higgins office, Lancaster street,
Nitrous Oxide Gas given for patients extracting.
STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Farmers Bank & Trust Co.

OF STANFORD, KY.

Is now fully organized and ready for business with

Paid up Capital of - - $200,000.
Surplus, - - - - - 19,000.

SUCCESSOR TO THE LINCOLN NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD,

Now closing up with the same assets and under the same management.

By provisions of its charter, depositors are as fully protected as in the Lincoln National Bank, its shareholders being held individually liable to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. It may act as executor, administrator, trustee, &c., as fully as an individual.

To those who entrusted their business to us while managing the Lincoln National Bank of Stanford, we here tender our many thanks and trust they will continue to trust their business with us. We are anxious to make prompt arrangements to some our twenty years' experience in banking and as liberal accommodations as are consistent with sound banking.

DR. J. J. WILLIAMS, Mt. Vernon;

J. H. Hall, Stanford;

J. S. Owlesy, Stanford;

S. J. Embry, Stanford;

J. E. Lynn, Stanford;

A. W. Carpenter, Milledgeville;

J. K. Baughman, Hustonville;

J. E. Cash, Stanford;

William Gouch, Stanford, Ky.

S. H. Shanks, President;

J. B. Owlesy, Cashier;

W. M. Bright, Teller;

H. Baughman, General Book-keeper.

95-197

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock..... $200,000
Surplus..... 18,500

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford.
Under the provisions of the National Bank Act, depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the gold and silver bullion held in the vaults of the bank, and that deposits of this institution are secured by a fund of $500,000.
Five sworn statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government auditors, thus securing additional and ample safety to depositors.

This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1863, and again reorganized as First National Bank of Stanford in 1874, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 20 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and honorably than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, fiduciaries, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.

The Directory of this Bank is composed of:

T. J. Foster, of Stanford;

Forrestus Reid, Lincoln county;

J. W. Haydon, Stanford;

S. H. Baughman, Lincoln;

M. J. Miller, Mt. Vernon;

S. T. Harris, Lincoln;

J. S. Hocker, Stanford;

G. A. Luckey, Lincoln;

T. P. Hill, Stanford;

W. G. Welch, Stanford;

W. P. Tate, Stanford.

OFFICERS:

J. S. Hocker, President;

John J. McRoberts, Cashier;

A. A. McKinney, Assistant Cashier.

LANCASTER, BARRARD COUNTY.

Seven wagon loads of corn were brought into town Sunday morning and placed on cars for shipment.

The report that J. Mort Rothwell was married turned out to be untrue. He merely sent the telegram to have a little fun.

Prof. Knester's music class will give another one of their delightful recitals at the College chapel this Monday evening.

If the real merits of many of our so-called statesmen were in proportion to their ambition, the number of genuine statesmen would be materially increased.

A recent letter from Mr. E. W. Morrow, who was called to Selma, Ala., by a telegram announcing the death of his mother, says that his father is rapidly sinking. Everybody in Lancaster is Ed's friend and they deeply sympathize with him in his sad bereavement.

Why not fill the army destined for Chili with the professional politicians who have proclaimed from a thousand stamps their patriotism and desire to serve their country at five thousand a year, or even less rates in cases of emergency and if necessary to shed the last drop of blood in its defense?

The young ladies of Lancaster will give a leap year party on the evening of February 1st. The invitations read thus: "Forty old maids, same younger, some older, Each lugger an old bachelor home on her shoulder."

Hotel de Holmes, 7:30, Feb. 4, 1892. A full report will appear in this column of the 1st.

The New York Press is clamorous for war with Chili. The Press, like the fable of the wolf and the lamb, is determined that Chili has muddied the stream whether above or below the United States. It has been asked by a correspondent why the two countries could not sit down like two well bred gentlemen and discuss and reconcile their differences without resort to bloodshed? The substance of the only reply it has been able to give to this pertinent question is that Chili is no gentleman.

It does not follow that the American citizens who deprecate war and are loth to pounce down upon a diminutive republic in a matter of very questionable propriety are necessarily cowards. Experience has shown and especially in the late war that those on both sides who were the most loud mouthed in advocacy of war, and who were unwilling to listen to reason, were never known to have exposed their precious persons upon a battle field, but on the contrary, after having precipitated hostilities, remained at home in security, leaving those who were peaceably inclined to do the fighting.

Ira Taylor, of Cincinnati, is in town. Mr. R. L. Elkin and wife, of Louisville, are visiting relatives in Lancaster. Mr. Elkin says that Will Collier, of Surveyor Collier's office, has about recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia. Miss Adie Burnside has returned from school at Oxford, O. She will shortly leave for Cincinnati, where she will take a thorough course at the Conservatory of Music. Miss Georgia Moore, of lower Barrard, was in town Saturday, Feb. 18 to 21. This convention is being looked forward to with great interest by the Christian young men of the State.

The opening address will be delivered by Rev. E. E. Hoss, B. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn. Besides many workers from our own State, Rev. B. J. McBryde, D. D., Lexington, Va.; Mr. W. K. Jennings, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. C. K. Ober, Southern secretary of the International Committee; Mr. F. S. Brockman, College secretary of the International Committee; Mr. S. D. Gordon, State secretary, Ohio, and Mr. and Mr. F. S. Goodman, general secretaries, Cleveland, D. C. Association, have promised to be present and assist.

A large number of delegates are expected. The attendance last year at Lexington was 266. Reduced rates on all the railroads and entertainment will be provided. All Christian young men expecting to attend should write at once for programme and full particulars to Henry E. Rosevear, State secretary, 431 W. Walnut street, Louisville.

Being unable to capture Catario Garza, the Mexican revolutionist, the U. S. troops have done the next best thing they could by capturing Frank Garza, his brother. This will doubtless be followed by the capture of the rest of his family, uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, grand-mother and grand-father, and while Catario will be vanquished around in the chaparral in search of mescal and tortillas, the regulars of the United States and Mexico can content themselves with sending dispatches that they are "hot on his trail" and his family are prisoners of war. The report from San Antonio, Texas, on the 21st inst., is that the whole of the Rio Grande frontier is covered with snow and that the several commands of the U. S. Cavalry in the field are without tents and are suffering intensely from cold.

Gen. Hatus Coon, of San Diego, Cal., has opened an office and commenced rearming a brigade for the war with Chili. It has been ascertained that Gen. Coon served in the 2d Iowa Cavalry during the late war, though what extraordinary deeds of daring he performed have not been conspicuously recorded in history. It is known that Coon has an especial fondness for chickens and the probabilities are that many a Confederate hen roost suffered when Gen. Coon was encamped in their immediate locality. But what is the use of tien. Coon going to all this trouble when Gen. Edison, of phonograph and electric light fame, has discovered a scheme by which the armies of Chili are to be quelled without firing a gun or the loss of a man. He has demonstrated that a stream of electricity charged with water can be made very fatal and propels to construct a fort, which he will man with not more than 25 men. He will put in an electrical machine of 20,000 volts energy, one wire from which would be grounded and the other connected with a pipe capable of throwing water under a pressure of 400 pounds to the square inch. When an enemy approaches, the men in the fort will simply turn the water on them and every man touched will drop dead. If they want to be more merciful, they will only apply enough electricity to stun their enemies into insensibility and then take the whole lot prisoners. This would be entirely practicable if Gen. Edison could get permission of the Chilian to land and build his fort; but without standing room for his fortification it is difficult to see what headway he could make unless he could get near enough to shore with his batteries to operate his machine on board a ship of war, and as the man of war would be likely to have all the fighting it could do to enable it to keep ahead of the electrical water machine would stand a first rate chance of being knocked out of water before it had accomplished anything worthy of mention. Now if Gen. Edison had been in Chili with his invention at the time the 38 American sailors were carousing and turned his water battery loose upon those warlike sailors, he would have saved the people of this country a vast amount of unnecessary bluster and brag.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

During last year 23 horses earned records of 14:41 and better.

Josh Adams bought of H. J. Darst 20 head of 1,000 pound feeders at 3:30.

John Murphy sold to Higgins, of Boyle, three two-year old mules at $120.

J. W. Powell, of the West End, sold Johnson, of Boyle, 8 3/4 year-old cattle at 2:40.

John Williams of Casey, bought in Russell county 23 head of 2-year-old feeders at 2:40.

B. G. Govers sold to R. C. Nunneley 1/2 head of 3-year-old cattle, about 900 lbs., at $30.

Dr. J. T. Bohon has four or five two-year old mules ready for market that he is anxious to sell.

Several Illinois traders have shipped back mules from the South rather than take the low prices offered.

J. Farther Neel and Miss Mattie, sister of Hon. D. G. Colson, all of Middlebury, are to become one to-morrow.

For SALE—50 select ewes, strictly No. 1, due to lamb in a few days by pure Southdown breed.

The Anderson News says that Mrs. Alexander sold 20 turkeys for $40. They averaged 19 pounds and sold at 7c.

Young Men's Christian Associations.

The 11th annual State convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky will convene at Danville, Feb. 18 to 21. This convention is being looked forward to with great interest by the Christian young men of the State.

The opening address will be delivered by Rev. E. E. Hoss, B. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn.

Besides many workers from our own State, Rev. B. J. McBryde, D. D., Lexington, Va.; Mr. W. K. Jennings, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. C. K. Ober, Southern secretary of the International Committee; Mr. F. S. Brockman, College secretary of the International Committee; Mr. S. D. Gordon, State secretary, Ohio, and Mr. and Mr. F. S. Goodman, general secretaries, Cleveland, D. C. Association, have promised to be present and assist.

A large number of delegates are expected. The attendance last year at Lexington was 266. Reduced rates on all the railroads and entertainment will be provided. All Christian young men expecting to attend should write at once for programme and full particulars to Henry E. Rosevear, State secretary, 431 W. Walnut street, Louisville.

Beginning with the New Year, it is customary to form new resolutions and as far as possible profit by experience of the past. The general credit system having been universally condemned by both debtor and creditor as a curse to our country, one of our young grocery merchants has concluded that it will be wise and profitable to both himself and his customers to steer clear of this reef that has made shipwreck of so many in the past and at the same time offer such inducements to his customers that they can not afford to buy their groceries elsewhere. For example he will sell you

20 lbs. Granulated Sugar for $1.00

23 lbs. best C Sugar 1.00

5 lbs. Choice Green Coffee... 1.00

4 lbs. Arbuckle's Coffee..... 85

2 gallons best Coal Oil..... 25

3 cans 2-lb. Peaches..... 25

3 cans 3-lb. Tomatoes..... 25

3 cans 2-lb. Corn..... 25

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Having removed my Barber Shop to the Commercial Hotel, I am prepared to accommodate as well as gentlemen in anything they may wish to my line.